Prints, just received, at Ober, Bond & Wilson's.

Easel Pictures, for ladies, at Campbell, Sloan & Tuthill's.

Good sugar weather now for—McLellan and Wilson's.

Bed Blankets and Horse Blankets, cheap, at Ober, Bond & Wilson's.

The streets are nearly as bottomless as the distinguished "bottomless pit."

Bacon, Hams, Shoulders and Lard, cheap, at Campbell, Sloan & Tuthill's.

Already some of our townfolk are preparing to make a trip to the Centennial.

The Arctic Black Alpacas, the best in the market, for sale at the New York store.

"Klenzer," for cleaning silver and silver-plated ware, at D. & J. B. Whitehead's.

Sargent & Williams are daily receiving new goods—new styles and low prices for all.

Rev. G. S. Dehorn, presiding elder of the Salina district, makes his home in Salina.

The granger talk of building a picnic at Oak Dale Park about the middle of May.

A new lot of prints, handsome Spring patterns, just received at the New York store.

New Prints! New Prints! New Prints!

At Ober, Bond & Wilson's Cheap Cash Store.

Hats, Boots and Shoes, cheap.

J. C. Rash & Son's.

The present city council held their first meeting for the allowance of bills to-morrow evening.

For anything you want go direct to Sargent & Williams. They guarantee lowest prices all the time.

We understand that the Presbyterian congregation talk strongly of building a parsonage right away.

It is an established fact that the New York store is the cheapest store in Salina, therefore buy your goods.

Quick sales, small profits and satisfaction guaranteed, at the Stone Palace store of Ober, Bond & Wilson's.

The new trial in the contest case of Wildman vs. Anderson comes up before Judge Present tomorrow.

Those oysters at Lay's are the best ever brought to this market. You can get them at any time—day or night.

Talk about the Florence and Salina railroad has subsided. We have had talk enough in The next thing wanted is—something done.

School books, of all kinds used in our schools, at publisher's retail prices.

WHITEHEAD & SEAMAN.

Clothing—we have just received the largest and cheapest lot ever brought to Salina.

SARGENT & WILLIAMS.

D. E. L. Cannon has become telegraph operator at Brookville in place of Cummings, appointed to General Superintendent's office.

Centennial Tea Sets—they are pretty—good and see them, at Campbell, Sloan & Tuthill's.

The stone and brick masons, plasterers and painters are disgusted at the action of the weather. They are certainly "on half pay" now.

Everybody who wants to invest in dry goods or clothing, go to the New York store, for you save at least twenty per cent, by buying your goods there.

"Klenzer," for cleaning silver and silver-plated ware, at D. & J. B. Whitehead's.

We understand that Col. Campbell, father-in-law of Mr. A. C. Sloan of this place, succeeds Capt. Thomas as Register of the Land Office at Kirwin.

For wall paper, call on Mrs. A. T. Geier, Largest and best assortment ever brought to Salina. All new patterns, among which will be found the beautiful Centennial.

We have now on hand the largest and best stock of Base Ballis and Bats ever shown in Salina. Call and see them.

WHITEHEAD & SEAMAN.

Mr. C. E. Faulkner was elected by the late M. E. Conference, which was held at Lawrence, one of the lay alternate delegates to the General Conference to be held in Baltimore.

This week Campbell, Sloan & Tuthill beat the world in getting new goods. They have now got everything the heart desires, and it will pay you to go and look at the pretty and new styles for the Spring. And they are so plentiful.

Centennial Glass Sets, at Campbell, Sloan & Tuthill's.

Mrs. M. Ransom, who has been very seriously sick at the Pacific House for several days, is, we are happy to learn, gradually getting better. Her husband, who had been telegraphed for, reached here Tuesday evening.

Prints, Prints, Prints, at Ober, Bond & Wilson's.

Wild geese were flying over the other evening. We do not know which way they were going. It is immaterial to us. Geese judgment has decided fifty per cent, in our estimation. They know nothing about the weather.

If you have a notion of attending the Centennial, or even church, you should make your way to McLaughlin's and have him take your measure for a suit of clothes. He can give you a perfect fit. He can make an ugly tom fool simply. He can dress you up in better style than you have ever been dressed, since you took off your swaddling clothes.

Last evening three mammoth Canadian stables were shovelled off the train, and are to make their residence here for a season. One of them, a three year old, weighs 1,700 pounds. They are a ponderous family, and certainly belongs to the race of giants.

Best Coffee, at J. C. Rash & Son's.

Rope, Rope, Rope, any size, at Ober, Bond & Wilson's.

Easel Collegettes, a new color, at Campbell, Sloan & Tuthill's.

"Klenzer," for cleaning silver and silver-plated ware, at D. & J. B. Whitehead's.

The trains got a little mixed up on account of the snow storm. Tuesday morning's passenger train from the West did not reach here until 9 o'clock that night. It was thrown into a ditch in a cut between Brookville and Elsworth. Otherwise the trains have been a little behind time, but have managed to make Salina all right.

The most excellent fresh oysters in the City of Lay's.

The cheapest store in Salina, the "broken down" Stone Palace, the New York store.

Hams, Bacon, Shoulders and Lard, cheap, at Ober, Bond & Wilson's Stone Palace store.

Mr. M. F. O. Federer, a former resident of Germany, but now the proprietor of a market in Boston, writes in that he will soon return to Salina county. He also states that quite a number of Massachusetts people are making arrangements to emigrate to this country.

Easel Cases, something curious, at Campbell, Sloan & Tuthill's.

A new stock of latest style of Hats and Caps just received at the New York store, which will be sold cheaper than ever.

So far little has been said concerning the city election. Undoubtedly a ticket of competent men will be presented to the people, and elected. If Salina chooses for the coming year a good city council as she has had this year, she will have no cause whatever to complain.

The streets are nearly as bottomless as the distinguished "bottomless pit."

Bacon, Hams, Shoulders and Lard, cheap, at Campbell, Sloan & Tuthill's.
